15th Annual Brother Booker Ashe Urban Ministry Program

Tuesday, November 10th, 6:00 – 9:00p.m.

Sr. Camille Kliebhan Conference Center

Cardinal Stritch University

Keynote Speaker: David Liners, Executive Director, WISDOM

TOPIC: “Reverencing Creation: Prophetic Voices for Human Dignity”

David Liners, is the Executive Director for WISDOM, a Wisconsin network of faith-based organizations, part of the international Gamaliel Foundation. WISDOM is a multi-issue, grassroots organization. It is best known for its work to end mass incarceration. Over the past thirteen years, Liners has overseen the growth of the statewide network from three to twelve diverse, interfaith local organizations in Wisconsin. His duties include leadership training, supervision of organizing staff, and work with local and state leadership groups to develop solid organizing plans. He has developed models for building new projects, for moving start-up projects into long-term stability, and re-organizing projects in need of revitalization. He holds a BA from Marquette University (Political Science and Theology, Magna Cum Laude), a Masters of Divinity (MDiv) from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago and a Doctor of Ministry (DMin) from St. Mary of the Lake University. Liners lives in Milwaukee with his wife (a public school teacher) and two children (public school students). He is also an adjunct faculty member of the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee and Cardinal Stritch University.
